HOMER BY HAP FELSCH GIVES SOX FINAL OF BROWN SERIES

Gleason's Tribe of Pennant Chasers Leave Southern City Feeling Champs Already.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 28.—Hap Felsch did it yesterday in the seventh inning. With the White Sox two runs behind and with two men on the bases, Hap came to bat in the game between the Sox and the Browns and connected with one for a home run drive over the left wall, sending in two men ahead of him and winning for Chicago, 6 to 5.

If Felsch hadn't connected with that one, the Sox might have been linked. They were having some trouble with the curves of Bert Gallia, who was on the slab, opposed by Claude Williams. Williams wouldn't have been in any great distress except for a two base snack by Earl Smith, once with the Cubs and more recently with Omaha.

No one in St. Louis seemed sorry that the White Sox won the game. They have given up the fight down here as it looks as if at least half of the population is in favor of Gleason to win the flag and the chief por for still sticking for the Browns in the home that Jimmy Burke is a miracle man.

A vigorous assault by the Sox in the second inning put Chicago ahead. Gallia was wild. He walked Jackson and Felsch and Gaudil followed with a single that drove one man home. Rishberg followed with another that counted one, and Schalk produced another blow that sent a third run over. Gallia tightened up after that and never walked through the ball game, but he waded fairly comfortably.

In the sixth round the Browns staged what seemed to be the winning attack. There was a walk to Gedeon, a two-bagger by Jacobson, and after Sister had fouled out, Tobin drew a pass, filling the bases. Up came Earl Smith of Omaha and poked one to the wall in right center for two sacks. This with two runs already obtained gave St. Louis a lead of two.

EAST MEETS WEST AT FOREST HILLS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Willis E. Davis of California, who defeated Norman E. Brooks of Australia at Southampton last week and R. Norris Williams II of Boston, twice yesterday in the third round today of the national lawn tennis championship tournament on the west side courts here. Williams showed top form in eliminating Vincent Richards yesterday.

Two other matches selected from the 15, up for decision today to be played on the grandstand courts brought together Maurice E. McLoughlin of California and Leonard Beekman of New York and Gerald L. Patterson of Australia, world's title-holder, and Watson M. Washburne of New York.

INDIANS RELEGATE TIGERS TO SECOND

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Cleveland made it two straight from the Tigers yesterday, winning, 7 to 5, and thus breaking the tie that existed for second place. Daws was knocked from the box in the first inning. Love was effective until the seventh, when he was relieved by Boland. It was off the latter that O'Neill made a single, scoring the winning runs. COMPETITION KEEN IN WOMEN'S PLAY FOR GOLF TITLE

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 28.—Several hard fought matches were in prospect today between contenders for places in the semi-finals of the Women's Western Golf association tournament. Mrs. David Gault, runner-up in the southern championship this summer, was paired with Miss Dorothy Higgins who yesterday surprised many followers of the game by her easy victory over Miss Francis Hadfield, who had ruled a favorite for the title.

Much interest was also displayed in the match between Mrs. H. Arnold Jackson, and Mrs. F. Foreman, both of Chicago. Mrs. Jackson has been considered a probable finalist throughout the tournament because of her finished game and experience in past championships.

BRENNAN K. O'S BURKE

New Orleans, La., Aug. 28.—Bill Brennan knocked out Jack Burke here last night in the seventh round.

SAYS PAT TO M'GRAW HA, HA, HA, HA,

BY N. E. BROWN.

If the city on the Ohio river walks off with the National League pennant this season John McGraw will stand out as the most generous of men. For he can then be given credit for having given away a pennant.

Last spring President Baker of the Phillies decided that he could get the maximum added interest in his club this season for the least money if he just fired Pat Moran and hired somebody else as manager.

The fact that Pat Moran was a pennant for him in 1915 with Grover Alexander, Wade Killefer and seven other uniforms, was forgotten.

Pat went home for a few days and then looked around for something to do this summer. McGraw had several young pitchers that needed tutoring, so he hired Pat as coach of the rookie hurlers.

Then one day Garry Herrmann, president of the Reds, asked Moran to come to the city of forlorn hopes and lead the Reds.

"If you want to take a chance it ain't my funeral. Let's have a cigar," said Mac.

So Pat packed up again and hit the trail—for oblivion, most folks thought.

Cincinnati fans laid down their ham-mers, handy by, and gave Pat a chance to lead the Reds.

Now the Cincinnati club has the inside track on the pennant. And, giving due credit to the players of the club, it has been named Moran's personality, his all-around baseball ability and his keen leadership that has put the Reds where they are.

While many rabid fans around the National League circuit and even in the American League are giving the pennant to Moran now, the Cincinnati fans and sport writers are taking a very sane view of the situation and have not conceded the flag to their club.

How Cincinnati Fans Feel.
One of the Cincinnati scribes probably expresses the view of Redland when he says:

"McGraw's men have a long stay at home and they will do everything in their power to stick close to the Reds and trust in our boys having something of a slump before the end of the season. The season is far from over and both teams have an excellent chance."

"It is much too early to begin erecting the flagpole at Redland field. The fans all have complete confidence in Manager Moran and his men, but the games must be won on the diamond and not in the lobbies of hotels or other public places. The Reds still have games to play with the Cubs, who think they have a possible chance for second place, though admitting that they can scarcely hope to beat out both the Reds and the Giants. Our boys will therefore have to keep on going at a fast clip and that is their intention and ambition. The team may well inspire confidence, for it is well handled and all the boys are keyed up to a winning notch."

It is now on its last long trip and it is over the hardest part of the journey, for the series at the Polo grounds is through for the season, but there are a few other hard spots to be safely traversed and the Giants are still a dangerous contender. But the boys have a lot of confidence in their manager and in one another, which means a great deal in a hard struggle like this. If the team can hold its own for the next two weeks and come home in first place or within a game or two of that admirable position, it is reasonably sure to make a powerful finish. For the skill, speed and courage are there and will not be denied."

she having twice held the national title.

Miss Marjorie Edwards was paired with Mrs. P. Fisk for the third round and Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr., was to meet Mrs. W. G. McGivern, Michigan's only remaining representative.

CHICAGO FAVORS JOE WELLING OVER RITCHIE MITCHELL
Joe Welling's favorite for his match with Ritchie Mitchell at Benion Harbor Monday afternoon, and unless Milwaukee money offered sets that of the Chicago crowd, to 8 will be offered by Joe's admirers. Three days' work in the gym here has convinced the local lads that Welling is in pretty fine condition. South side fans are showing keen interest in the Paddy Clancy-Ton Holderson match, and this promises to be a betting affair.

CUBS VICTORS IN EXHIBITION WITH TORONTO

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 28.—The Chicago Cubs defeated the Toronto Leafs yesterday afternoon in an exhibition game, 6 to 3. Alexander started on the mound for the visitors but pitched only one inning, when he retired in favor of Vaughn. Spencer, the recruit from the Michigan-Ontario league, hit the first ball Aleck tossed up for a home run, the pill bounding over the right field fence.

Peterson went the entire route for the locals and was found for 12 hits. His control was fine, but he was unable to prevent the Cubs from bunting hits and this resulted in his defeat. George White-man, hero of the 1918 world's series, made a single on his first appearance at the plate but thereafter fell a victim to Vaughn's curve ball.

Merkle led at the bat for the visitors with a home run, a double, and a single in four times up. Billy Purcell, formerly of the White Sox, made three singles in as many attempts. Score:

TRIPLE PLAY AIDS TOTS TRIM ROCKS

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 28.—Terre Haute won from Rockford, 9 to 7. With the bases full in the first inning the Tots pulled a triple play. Young lined to Loney, who forced Ward at third and threw to Henry, catching Shallenberger before he could return to first base. Voight pitched four innings for Rockford before going to the outfield. After two innings he returned to the slab and finished the game. Score:

ATHLETES CLAIM EXPENSE MONEY IS MUCH TOO SMALL

Star amateur athletes, who are invited to take part in contests of various kinds throughout the country, are the latest to feel the pinch of L. These performers assert they cannot live properly on the amount of expense money permitted by the Amateur Athletic union rules and they intend to file a protest with the national body at its meeting in Philadelphia next month.

According to A. A. U. rules, athletes are allowed only $5 a day for board and lodging on their trips, and only $1.50 for meals on railroad trains. The athletes, being hearty eaters, assert they cannot purchase a substantial meal on a train for this amount, while it is out of the question to live in a first class hotel and secure their meals on $5 per.

NEW CHAMPS TAKE DRUBBING OFF EVAS

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 28.—Twenty-one solid hits for 27 bases overthrew Bloomington, new Three-Eye champs, yesterday afternoon. 14 to 5. Romine failed to stop Evansville at any stage of the show. Shields, although hit hard, foiled all dangerous swatters and contributed a single, double and triple toward victory.

Kellerman's jumping one-hand catch of a hard liner and his throw while in the air to Sykes to double a man off first was the feature. Bashang's brilliant work in center out of three Bloomington rallies. He also made four hits in four times up.
